Motivating High Performance Sales with Incentive Compensation & Rewards

With the marketplace moving from primary to specialist and value-based care, the way sales performance is measured and rewarded has also changed. There's a higher pressure on the sales reps to promote effectively. Incentive compensation is the strongest tool to influence salesforce effectiveness by aligning the reward to their effort to build a high-performing, motivated salesforce. Good incentive compensation plans and well administered execution drive the right behavior and propels higher field force performance. Yet few companies can efficiently and accurately execute on the best intentions.

Incentive Compensation Centre of Excellence

Motivating high performance sales takes a deep understanding of the industry domain, strong process governance and flexible cloud technology. Our dedicated centre of excellence, comprising a team of incentive compensation experts, domain specialists and data scientists, create IC frameworks that are financially-predictable, accurate, transparent, and scalable at a global level. Our well defined and modular processes backed by business rules and algorithms provide point solutions for alignment audit, territory design and field sessions.

Highlights of IC Capabilities

A well designed compensation plan gives right motivation to achieve high sales performance. This ensures timely and accurate payout of incentives, reduced operational costs, a decline in cycle time and increased field engagement.

Axtria supports end to end incentive compensation design and administrations by motivating the right behaviors to drive your sales strategy through:

- Compensation plan design and simulation
- Goal setting
- Sales crediting
- Plan and spiff administration
- Plan effectiveness reporting

Our best-in-class next generation, enterprise-grade end to end cloud-based platform Axtria SalesIQ™ can enable all of this. It allows commercial organizations to create the right territories, assign the right personnel, target the right customers through the proper channels, and measure and reward high performance.
